

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1281 - SB 1963

February 12, 2005

SUMMARY OF BILL: Amends current law regarding the Tennessee Film, Entertainment, and Music Commission by requiring it to promote the geographic and cultural diversity of Tennessee to motion picture production companies, producers of feature films, producers of television movies and series, music video production companies, and producers of music videos and other entities within the entertainment industry.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

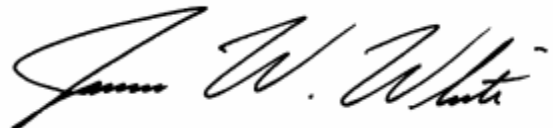

MINIMAL

Assumptions:

- The Tennessee Film, Entertainment, and Music Commission currently promotes the geographic and cultural diversity of the state to all entities of the entertainment industry.
- Geographical and cultural diversity have proved to be critical factors in attracting movies, film, television and other entertainment entities to Tennessee in the past.
- The commission relies heavily on these factors in its recruitment efforts.
